Please respond to all the questions in as much detail as possible. Do not leave any questions blank. Once you have completed the application, please hit the 'send' button or email the completed form to Satyarthi Prateek at satyarthi.dev@gmail.com. You can also reach out to us in case of any query.

At Tantra Nectar's Workshops, you may across partial or complete nudity. We encourage our attendees to embrace intimacy and overcome all their inhibitions. By signing up for the workshop, you are giving us your permission to be accepting and welcoming of the very nature of the workshop.

You may experience love and emotions without any mental or physical boundaries. While deep penetration is not allowed during a workshop, you may witness and experience nudity. You will be participating in a safe environment where your consent and freedom is of paramount importance. We encourage you to shed your inhibitions and follow what your heart says and where your soul directs. You are free to pursue your connections within and outside the workshop during the free time, but the same should not cause any nuisance or discomfort and should always be consensual. We would like to draw your attention and inform you that the consent of all parties is indispensable and non-negotiable

If you choose to not embrace nudity in any form, that also is acceptable to us; however, you must not make anyone feel uncomfortable who does not have the same choice as yours. Let's accept love in all forms, choices, ways. Freedom and Choice and the amount of participation in terms of nudity and intimacy will always be your decision.

We organize workshops across the Globe. Please browse our Calendar and sign up for the workshop that suits your schedule. We shall accordingly contact you and connect you with the respective trainers and organisers.
